

They Care

© Justin McRoberts 2002 Five Foot Six and a Half Music (ASCAP)

the seats fill, what do you see?
“am i here for them, are they here for me?”
they listen and they hear your words “but do i mean everything they’ve heard?”

they care, and they think you do that’s why they care for / follow you your lungs fill, with the breath they breathe is the moment now only make believe?

the stage is an alter; its foundation is trust what is sung here or spoken either heals or it cuts leadership is a privilege offered only by grace to abuse your position for your benefit is to spit in God’s face
