

Picking Sides

© Justin McRoberts 2005 Five Foot Six and a Half Music (ASCAP)

I did not endorse your candidate; I do not support the wars you wage
I am not the spirit of your new movement
I am the Lord Your God

I am not the god of theology; I am not the image you make of me
I am not the fruit of your deepest thinking
I am the Lord your God

You're only picking sides
In a war between two fools
You should know before the fighting begins
That it's a war you're bound to lose

I will choose the weak ones despite your strength
I will love the hated despite your hate
I am not persuaded by your fear and anger
I am the Lord your God

And I do not like the way you use my name
