

12. Until There Is No More Tomorrow

© Justin McRoberts 2008 Five Foot Six and a Half Music (ASCAP)

Sing like sparrows, Dream like heroes
And love like the bright sun
Ever warm, ever present.

Live your days in grace
May you die in that same way
Until there is no faith and no hope is known
Until there is no more tomorrow

Sleep unguarded but guard the sleepless
And love like the rain does
Never mind which ones are righteous

May you die in grace
May you live in that same way
Until there is no faith and no hope is known
Until there is no more tomorrow

Father glorious
To the Spirit and the Son
As You ever were so You will ever be
In a world without ending
