

Anything to You

© Justin McRoberts 2002 Five Foot Six and a Half Music (ASCAP)

the sun comes up the way it always does it just comes up and i don't owe anything to you so i don't want anything from you my heart just hurts the way it always hurts if i could see you then i might believe you and if i believed you then i'd give anything to you i'd give everything to you
